Andres Aguilar created this holiday masterpiece with imported flowers from South Africa, Holland and South America, while intertwining organic materials and unique accent greenery. His master crafter centerpieces are arranged in collector bowls.

Extraordinary designs planned for Vero Beach wine festival

Floral designer for Gloria Estafan's hotel will contribute

The Miami Sound Machine's Gloria Estafan has brought more than her Costa D'Este Hotel to Vero Beach. Andres Aguilar, owner and decorator of Miami's Mystique Flowers, is the event and floral designer for her Vero Beach hotel. He is also the designer for the 2009 Treasure Coast Wine Festival.

Since the hotel is the host for the eighth Treasure Coast Wine

Festival, it was natural for the flower designer to dovetail his talents for the event in decorating the Oriente Restaurant for the Jan. 23 wine-and-food-pairing dinner, as well as presenting his one-of-a-kind decor for the black tie gala and auction on Jan. 24.

When attendees enter the grand tent for the wine auction, they will see Aguilar's talent, as he transforms the tented venue, located on the grounds of Riverside Park, into a feast for the eyes.

Tickets for the Treasure Coast Wine Festival are available, and reservations can be made through the Wine Festival office.
